Zultys Appoints Connect Telephone & Computer Group To Prestigious Dealer Council Position

Firm recognized for achievement and industry expertise with key advisory role

BILLINGS, MT — May 27, 2010 — Connect Telephone & Computer Group today announced it has been appointed by Zultys, Inc., a leading provider of Unified Communications and VoIP Business Phone Systems since 2001, to a position of adviser on the Zultys Dealer Council. The appointment recognizes Connect Telephone & Computer Group's industry knowledge, experience and contribution to Zultys in the marketplace with a leadership role among Zultys' partner base.

"Zultys is very pleased to recognize the contribution Connect Telephone & Computer Group has made with this appointment to our Dealer Council," said Neil Lichtman, Chairman and CEO of Zultys. "They have proven themselves to be experts in understanding what their business customers really need, and then implementing Zultys Unified Communications solutions to help them increase profitability and boost productivity. We are looking forward to leveraging their experience base and insight for the betterment of all our channel partners."

"We are honored to be included among the handful of VARs working with Zultys on the Dealer Council. We hope our experience can help make Zultys' great products even more compelling, and more competitive, providing our customers with the highest quality solutions they need to be successful," said Matt Duray, President of Connect Telephone & Computer Group.
